

Currently City Manager of the City of Lakeport, previously city manager of the City of Gustine, and Housing & Economic Development Director for the City of Riverbank. Previous experiences before working in the public sector include banking, owning my own travel agency and Silveira General Construction. Completed my associate's degree at Modesto Jr. College and bachelor's degree from Chapman University, magna cum laude, in Organizational Leadership. Current affiliations – Executive Committee of the Lake County Regional Economic Development Commission, Friends of Mendocino College Governance Committee, Sutter Hospital Community Advisor Council.